

The Teacher

about whom ancient and modern prophets wrote

I was going about my business like everybody else when, all of a sudden, I was, "given the morning star". That most unusual event took place on a Sunday morning in September 1990 AD.

I am a medical doctor, a brain surgeon trained in New York City. I hold Medical Degrees (With Honors) from the University of London, England. My name is temporarily withheld.

A Most Unusual Experience*

The giving of the morning star was, for me, a most unusual and unexpected, physical experience. During the event, I was shown a huge and spectacular image in the heavens and, at that very same moment, the long-awaited Guide to Peace and Prosperity, Justice and Equity arrived on Planet Earth through me.

I named the Guide the Message of the Morning Star, because of the extraordinary way in which he arrived. Soon after that, I noticed that I have the automatic ability to teach the Message; that led to the realization that I am the Teacher.

The King of France

In 1558 AD (4-442 MSD), Dr. Michel de Nostradame, a Frenchman and Europe's greatest prophet, better known as Nostradamus, wrote some of his most important predictions in a letter he sent to the king of France. (The queen of France was already the prophet's client.) In that letter, now known as the Epistle to King Henri the Second of France, Nostradamus stated that a great Guide to Peace and Prosperity, Justice and Equity for humankind will arrive at a future date. Amazingly, he specified, in writing, the exact date and location of the Guide's arrival. Four hundred and thirty-two years later, in 1990 AD (4-10 MSD), the Guide arrived precisely on the date and at the location the prophet had predicted.

Seven eventful years passed after the Guide arrived before I discovered Nostradamus' prophecies and realized that the date and place of arrival of the Guide were precisely as Nostradamus had predicted 432 years before the Guide arrived.

The Spectacular Image

What was the large and spectacular image in the heavens that I was shown at the arrival of the Guide? It is the star that appears as the background image of this 4-page report.

The rays of the morning sun were gathered into the five limbs of a great star. The image was very, very large indeed because, based on the diameter of the sun (at nearly 865 thousand miles), which was at the center of the star, the great arm of the star is about 100 million miles long. That's a hundred million miles long, and that is very large indeed.

I named the image the Image of the Morning Star.

This Is Not A New Religion

I want to make it quite clear that I am not starting a new religion or promoting an old one. The Guide (i.e. the Message of the Morning Star) is not religious in any way, but the Message supports every religion. I state emphatically and categorically that the Message encourages you to practise your religion diligently.

As for me, personally, I support all religions. I also support those who choose to have no religion.

Important Points To Note

I want to make it very clear that:

- (1) I am not divine;
- (2) I am not a prophet;
- (3) I am not a messenger;
- (4) I am not a priest or a minister; and
- (5) I am not holy.

I state, most emphatically, that I am simply another person with an unusual assignment; an assignment for which I did not ask. The assignment includes many people and organizations, in various ways and in different capacities. You can certainly participate in a meaningful way, if you choose.

How Can You Know?

I fully recognize that because of the extraordinary statements I am making here, an obvious question naturally arises. Please pay close attention to the question and its answer. The question is: How do you know I am the Teacher? I could be lying or confused, just like many others who have made outrageous and false claims over the ages. I could simply be mentally ill, or I could even be the very Deceiver himself.

That is a very important question. Here's the answer: You don't know; you really don't know.

Do I then expect you to accept these extravagant and astonishing claims on faith? Certainly not. Because, with the Message, faith is not, and I repeat, not required. Now pay even closer attention.

You Can Test It Yourself

There is one major point that makes all the difference, and here it is. The Message can be tested scientifically by anyone. Therefore, test the Message yourself so you won't have to believe anything; because when you test the Message yourself, you will know if the Message is true or false. I emphasize again that, with the Message, faith is not, and I repeat, not required. Religion needs believers who have faith; the Message does not. The Message is simply a manifestation of inflexible Natural Law.

Now hear this: I am a skeptic, just like you are. And, as a skeptic, I tested the Message; and now I know. But don't take my word for it. Test the Message yourself. I strongly recommend that you do. The procedure for testing the power and validity of the Message is given in Part 2 or the 3-Part Message itself.

Several prophecies were written long ago to enable future generations to correctly identify the one right person as the Teacher. Two of those old prophecies state that the right person will be imprisoned by powerful authorities. I was unlawfully imprisoned on trumped-up charges and fabricated evidence by the government of the United States. By the time I saw the first of the two prophecies, I was already in prison.*

The Guide Can Solve Problems

If the Guide is indeed the Guide, it must be able to perform significant tasks. It does. For example, the Guide can solve any of humankind's problems in a fair, just and equitable manner, whether those problems are major or minor. What kinds of problems? These must include those that humankind now seems quite unable to solve. The major and minor problems could be:

- (1) The Iraqi situation
- (2) The Arab-Israeli impasse
- (3) Poverty
- (4) Husband-wife problems
- (5) Climate change
- (6) Unruly children
- (7) Deteriorating and/or violent neighborhoods
- (8) Gang problems.

The solutions will be true, fair, just and equitable, achieved only through nonviolent means. They will not be impositions or documents of surrender.

*The full report on the arrival of the Guide and on many other fascinating matters surrounding that extraordinary physical event is a revealing book titled Wings of the Morning Star.
